

ALERT – Consumer Product Safety

If the product you are submitting is primarily marketed for use by children 12 years old or younger, Section 102 of the CPSIA requires you to submit an independent CPSIA Certified laboratory test report for each product submitted as proof that your product has been tested and is in compliance with this law. Products that are subject to the CPSIA will not be accepted without a CPSIA Certified test result submitted. If you believe that the product you are submitting is not subject to the 2008 Consumer Product Safety Improvement Act, complete the following information.
