

Units & Course Goals

I. Family Sciences Unit

- Identify strategies for reaching your potential and using your resources.
- Demonstrate communication skills that contribute to positive relationships.
- Use the decision making process to balance the challenges within a family.
- Recognize the knowledge, skills and practices required for the care of children.

II. Food Science & Production Unit

- Integrate knowledge, skills and practices required for food production and meeting the needs of family nutrition.
- Apply teamwork and leadership skills when working in the cooking labs.

III. Textile Science Unit

- Demonstrate skills needed to produce, alter and repair textile products and apparel.

Integrated throughout the Curriculum:

Community & Consumer Sciences

(goals taught within the context of the other units)

- Analyze strategies needed to manage multiple individual, family, career and community roles and responsibilities.
- Explore careers related to Family & Consumer Sciences.
- Demonstrate management of individual and financial resources.

